SparkCognition
Austin, TX

Lucy Wu leads Corporate Development and Strategy efforts at SparkCognition, an Austin-based high-growth startup focused on building cognitive AI platforms. Prior to joining SparkCognition, Lucy advised members of a local VC's startup accelerator and worked in growth equity and investment banking.

Before pursuing her career in finance and corporate strategy, Lucy attended The University of Texas at Austin and graduated from McCombs with a BBA in Accounting. During her time as a student, Lucy's most memorable experience was volunteering at SXSW every spring break and interning at ACL TV.

Outside of her role at SparkCognition, Lucy spends her weekends teaching at YTX Austin, an Austin-based yoga studio and serves as a McCombs Alumni mentor. Lucy is also an avid sports fan and enjoys watching Formula 1, tennis and basketball, in addition to FC Austin and Longhorn Athletics. In her downtime, she loves strolling with her dogs Dobby and Mushu, reading and playing pickleball.
