Luis Pablo Rhi serves as a Director, Equity Portfolio Manager and Senior Analyst at (BHMS) Barrow, Hanley, Mewhinney and Strauss, LLC in Dallas, TX. In his role, he is responsible in the management and investment recommendations in the energy, utilities and real estate sectors for Domestic and Global Equity Portfolios.

He joined BHMS in 2017 from BNY Mellon, based in New York, where he was a Sr. Portfolio Manager of their US Large Cap Equity, US Large Cap Growth, Dividend Equity, Focused Equity and MLP strategies. In his role, he oversaw over $12 billion under management and handed some of the most important relationships. He was also the Co-Chairperson of the firm's proxy committee, serving $1.7 trillion under administration. He began his investment professional career at The Bank of New York in 1998, and during his tenure there, he served in different equity investment roles, including sector Portfolio Manager and Senior Analyst covering energy, utilities, real estate and financials industries.

He earned a BBA in Finance from the McCombs School of Business in 1998 and was part of the first class of the Financial Analyst Program (FAP). He currently serves on the McCombs BBA Advisory Board as the Chairperson for the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee. He has also served on the McCombs Real Estate Investment Fund Advisory Board and as executive board member for the New York for McCombs Council (NYFM) and Wall Street for McCombs Boards.
