

Veshal Arul Prakash
Senior Product Manager
Found
Austin, TX

Veshal is a senior product manager at Found - a growth-stage telehealth startup focused on weight care - where he spearheads the product growth vertical. He joined the McCombs BBA Advisory Board in 2020 as the Rising Star Award recipient. Veshal also actively serves as a board member on the Bay Area for McCombs Advisory Board, an alumni interviewer for the McCombs honors programs, and an alumni mentor for several UT Austin student organizations.

Prior to Found, Veshal was the product manager at Dropbox leading onboarding and activation experiences for all individual users. He also has professional experiences across D2C and B2B product management, investment strategy, tech M&A investment banking, aerospace advisory, and wealth management.

Veshal graduated from The University of Texas in 2020 with a BBA in Business Honors and Marketing. While on the Forty Acres, Veshal contributed to the university in the domains of technology, finance, and policy. He enjoyed serving as a co-founder and board member of Product@TX – the first organization on campus focused on tech product management – and as the president of the Texas Stock Team. In addition, he served on the McCombs College Tuition and Budget Advisory Committee.
