

Phoebe Lin
Private Equity Analyst
Blackstone

Phoebe recently graduated from The University of Texas in 2019 with degrees in Business Honors, Finance, and Mathematics. The 2019 Rising Star award recipient, Phoebe was very involved in the McCombs community during her four years on the Forty Acres. She served as president of the University Securities Investment Team, the largest finance organization on campus, and director of Texas Undergraduate Computational Finance. She also served as an Honors Business Association committee member for three years, hosting events for hundreds of Business Honors students, faculty, and staff.

After graduation, Phoebe joined The Blackstone Group as a Private Equity Analyst in their New York office. Prior to joining Blackstone, Phoebe interned in investment banking at Evercore and Wells Fargo. She also spent two semesters at UTIMCO, the endowment for The University of Texas System. In her free time, Phoebe enjoys attending Texas football games, exploring New York's restaurant scene, and watching Marvel movies. She is very excited to be a member of the BBA Alumni Advisory Board and looks forward to giving back to the McCombs community.
