ADMINISTRATIVE BASICS

Class Location

The majority of Texas Master of Science (MS) classes are held at the McCombs School of Business (CBA) and Graduate School of Business Building (GSB), 2100 Speedway, Austin, TX (NW corner of Speedway and 21st Street). Classes are held during weekdays and are not offered online unless deemed hybrid by the University of Texas at Austin due to covid-19, global pandemic, natural disaster, or other health/safety necessity. Regardless of class location, MS students are expected to attend classed synchronously rather than watch recordings at a later time or date. You will be notified ahead of time of any room changes via Canvas.

UT EID

Your UT EID is provided by the University of Texas at Austin (UT) to perform secure actions. You used this account to apply to the University. It is managed by the UT Information Technology Services (ITS) department. You should address any questions or issues with it to the UT Service Desk (<http://www.utexas.edu/its/helpdesk/>). You can reset your password or look up your UT EID at the UT EID Self Service Tools Site (https://idmanager.its.utexas.edu/eid_self_help).

Your UT EID is used to perform many actions, such as:

- Log in to Canvas (<http://canvas.utexas.edu/>), the learning management system used by professors and program staff to distribute documents, announcements, and grades
- Log in to the MyUT portal (<https://my.utexas.edu/UT-Austin-Production/Welcome>), the site where you can perform secure functions with UT
- Access UT's wireless internet
- Use UT Box (<https://utexas.account.box.com/login>) to store files
- Print to campus printers, including those in the McCombs School of Business

Upgrading your UT EID (<https://ut.service-now.com>) is necessary to view your grades online, accessing your UT Box account, and many other activities. To upgrade your UT EID, the University requires physical proof of your identity (government-issued ID, such as U.S. state license or passport) and you must sign an agreement which gives your UT EID legal signature authority. This process may be initiated upon your arrival on campus.

Acceptable Use Policy

When you use your UT EID, your McCombs School of Business (MSB) account, or any other UT or McCombs technology resources, you must follow UT's Acceptable Use Policy. These rules apply any time you use a UT computing resource. This can mean using a computer in one of the labs, sending email from your UT email account, or using UT's wireless Internet access. You are responsible for following all computing policies (https://security.utexas.edu/policies/aup) as outlined by The University of Texas at Austin.

Here are some of the most commonly broken policies:

- Do not let anyone else use your accounts. Never give out your password.
- Do not send rude, threatening, or harassing emails, even as a joke.
- You may not profit from the use of a university computing resource.
- Do not send emails anonymously or using someone else's name.
- Do not send spam.
- Do not violate copyright laws.
- Do not hack into any UT systems.

Students with Disabilities

The University of Texas at Austin has a written policy, which states that students with disabilities will be provided appropriate academic accommodations. The purpose of academic accommodations is to ensure equal access to and the opportunity to benefit from all educational programs at UT Austin for all students. It is the responsibility of the student to identify himself/herself to the Disability and Access Office and to provide documentation of their disability. Strict documentation guidelines exist for different types of disabilities. Information on documentation guidelines for disabilities can be found on the Disability and Access website (<https://diversity.utexas.edu/disability>) or via phone (512-471-6259) or e-mail (access@austin.utexas.edu). Faculty are not able to provide accommodations unless a student goes through this reporting process.

Tobacco and Alcohol Policies

The University of Texas at Austin is a tobacco-free campus (https://tobaccofree.utexas.edu), and the use of tobacco on any UT Austin property is not allowed. Tobacco use in any of The University of Texas at Austin buildings is strictly prohibited and any student found using tobacco in a UT Austin building is subject to a fine. UT Austin policies regarding alcoholic beverage consumption are very strict. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited from university activities without express written permission and prior approval from the Office of the Provost. A person must be at least 21 years of age to drink an alcoholic beverage in Texas. Any underage drinking will be referred to the Office of the Dean of Students for disciplinary review.

Student Guide to Sex Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, & Sexual Misconduct

The University of Texas at Austin is committed to maintaining an educational environment that is free from inappropriate conduct of a sexual nature. The University encourages students who believe that they may have been subjected to sex discrimination, sexual harassment, or sexual misconduct by faculty, staff, students, visitors, or contractors to report it immediately to a Title IX Coordinator or Deputy (https://titleix.utexas.edu/our-team) or file an anonymous report (https://titleix.utexas.edu/file-a-report). Feel free to share and discuss incidents or concerns with MSPO faculty and staff. Although the MSPO faculty and staff are required by law to report some incidents, they will explain what we must report so you are fully informed as you share your incident. You control how much information you provide to us and we provide resources to help you begin to manage the situation. Note: There are also confidential advocates located in the Dean of Students Office - <https://titleix.utexas.edu/confidential-advocate>

Student Code of Conduct

Any time you are representing the University of Texas at Austin or the MS Programs (directly or indirectly), you are expected to abide by the University's Student Code of Conduct:

<http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/conduct/standardsofconduct.php>

Some examples of misconduct include, but are not limited to:

- Disrespecting a fellow student, staff member, faculty member or external constituent
- Harassing or disruptive behavior at a school-sponsored event, or at events where you are representing The University of Texas at Austin

Issues that arise during the course of the program will be referred to the Dean of Students.

EMAIL & ACCOUNTS

Change in Personal Information

Each student is required to keep current local and permanent contact information, and an email address on file with the University. If any changes occur, please:

1. Immediately notify the Texas MS staff and appropriate faculty with the new information.
2. Update your information through the MyUT (<https://my.utexas.edu/UT-Austin-Production/Welcome>) portal. This updates your official UT record and directory entry, which is critical to ensure that no communication is missed.

Program Communications

Canvas will be the primary form of communication for academic and student affairs programmatic information. Students are expected to check program announcements on a regular basis using their Canvas log in. Students are also expected to check their email regularly and communicate with program staff in a timely manner.

UT Email Account

The University of Texas at Austin offers a lifetime email account (<https://ut.service-now.com/utss/catalogoverview>) on the utexas.edu domain to the UT community that you will continue to have access to after you leave or graduate from The University of Texas at Austin. This account includes 5 GB of storage for current students and 1 GB of storage for former students. The official format for UT email addresses is firstname.lastname@austin.utexas.edu. If that format is not available, please select a similarly professional option.

The University of Texas at Austin provides each student with a picture identification card that enables use of many university facilities and services, including but not limited to free Cap Metro transportation. Students should carry this card with them any time they are going to be present on the UT main campus.

To obtain your ID, please go to the Flawn Academic Center (FAC) and request a Student ID Card. The student ID card will allow you to access the McCombs building after hours. The cost to purchase this card is $10. Student can pay on the What I Owe Page. For additional information, visit the ID Center. Lost, damaged, or stolen cards will require an additional replacement fee paid by the student.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Degree Requirements

All Texas MS Programs students in the class of 2024 are responsible for completing the degree requirements in order to earn an MSBA, MSF, MSITM, or MSM degree, which can be found in Addendums A, B, C, or D respectively.

Students are required to complete all core components of their programs. Substitutions can be requested and approved by Program Directors on a case-by-case basis. Students are also able to request a maximum of 6 elective credit hours from another MS program curriculum to count towards their degree. In rare circumstances, a student may identify an elective course outside of the MS Program that achieve their academic outcomes. In such circumstances, the student must receive written permission from the course instructor as well as a representative from host department office (likely the Department's Graduate Advisor or Program Coordinator) prior to seeking approval from the MS Program Director.

Any classes taken outside the prescribed curriculum are subject to Program approval and may incur additional fees. Students who do not complete the prescribed curriculum within the 2023-2024 MS Programs Academic Year may be subject to additional requirements and fees.

Each MS student will receive an annual progress report from their graduate coordinator between the fall and spring semester. This report will outline remaining degree requirements and eligibility to graduate in the spring semester contingent upon successful completion of the spring semester.

Grades

All Texas MS students are held to the academic standards of The University of Texas at Austin. Students will receive a letter grade for each course, which are determined solely by the Texas MS faculty. Each instructor determines grading metrics and what constitutes successful academic performance in their course relative to those metrics. Courses in the Texas MS program may not be taken on a pass/fail or credit/no credit basis.

Official grade point averages are calculated by the Registrar and appear on the student academic record maintained by the Registrar. The grade point average does not include any graduate or undergraduate courses the student took at the University before enrolling in the UT Graduate School, credit by examination, or courses taken at other institutions. [note: MS courses completed while an undergraduate student will count toward a student's undergraduate GPA]

The following numerical equivalents of letter grades are used in the calculation of the graduate grade point average:

A	4.00	C	2.00
A-	3.67	C-	1.67
B+	3.33	D+	1.33
B	3.00	D	1.00
B-	2.67	D-	0.67
C+	2.33	F	0.00

Every Texas MS course is considered part of your official course of study. To graduate, all students must maintain an overall grade point average of at least 3.00 and make a “C” or better in all courses. *If a student receives a C- in a course, they will have to re-take the course as this grade does not meet the minimum requirement. Training courses taken during orientation are not graded or calculated into the student’s overall GPA. Course re-takes are at the discretion of the instructor and graduate advisor. Not meeting core course requirements could be grounds for dismissal from the program.

Please note that earning a “C-” or lower in a course may mean that a student is ineligible to continue a core requirement in the next semester, since each semester of coursework builds upon the next and courses are typically only offered once per year.*

Registration Policies

You will be registered for classes by MS Programs Staff. Registration processes and selection of courses will be communicated each semester. Additional policies include but are not limited to the following:

- Whole-Semester Classes -
 - Students can make changes to their schedules (add/drop) during the first twelve (12) class days of the long semester by communicating with their respective Senior Academic Program Coordinator.
 - Beginning on the thirteenth (13th) class day, students must gain permission from the Director of Student Experience to make schedule changes.
- Half-Semester Classes -
 - Students can make changes to their schedules (add/drop) during the first four (4) class days of the half-semester classes by communicating with their respective Senior Academic Program Coordinator.
 - Beginning on the fifth (5th) class day, students must gain permission from the Director of Student Experience to make schedule changes.

- For courses that offer multiple sections and meeting times, students may only attend the unique number of the course for which they are registered. Attending a unique number of a course for which you are not registered is against security, fire, and safety policies of the University.
- If a student wishes to request an elective from another MS Program, they must receive permission from both their program director as well as the program director owning the MS course. Approval is not guaranteed and students must make these requests by the deadline in that given semester (usually 1-2 weeks before the registration window). The specific date of this deadline will be communicated to you in advance. Exceptions after the deadline will only be considered with an approved petition from the Director of Student Experience.
- If a student wishes to request an elective from outside of MS Programs, they must receive permission through a petition to the Director of Student Experience. Petitions must clearly state how the learning objectives of the course will further your career goals, explain how these career goals are not met with an MS programs course option, and include a syllabus for the course you are requesting to take. Approval is not guaranteed and students must make these requests by the deadline in that given semester (usually 1-2 weeks before the registration window). The specific date of this deadline will be communicated to you in advance.
- You may not unofficially audit a course in the MS Programs. In order to officially audit a course begins with discussing your interest with your Senior Academic Program Coordinator and completing the necessary forms. Maximum Course Load

The maximum course load for a graduate student is 15 semester hours in a spring or fall semester, or 12 semester hours in a 12-week summer session. Students who wish to exceed the maximum course load must submit a petition letter from their graduate advisor to the graduate dean for approval.

Obtaining Grade Reports

Final course grades can be obtained on the Registrar's website (<http://registrar.utexas.edu/students/grades/report>). The University does not mail hard copies of grade reports to home addresses.

Academic Policies

Detailed information regarding all items addressed in this section may be found in the UT Austin Graduate Catalog (<http://registrar.utexas.edu/catalogs/graduate>).

Student Responsibilities

While university faculty and staff members may give a student academic advice and assistance, each student is expected to take responsibility for their education and personal development. The student must know and abide by the academic and disciplinary policies given in the Graduate Catalog (<http://registrar.utexas.edu/catalogs/graduate>) and in the General Information (<https://registrar.utexas.edu/catalogs/general-information>) Catalog, including rules governing quantity of work, the standard of work required to continue at UT, warning status and scholastic dismissal, and enforced withdrawal.

Observance of Religious Holidays

The 2023-2024 UT General Information Catalog (<https://catalog.utexas.edu/general-information/academic-policies-and-procedures/attendance/>) states that “A student who misses classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day should inform the instructor as far in advance of the absence as possible so that arrangements can be made to complete an assignment within a reasonable period after the absence. A reasonable accommodation does not include substantial modification to academic standards, or adjustments of requirements essential to any program of instruction. Students and instructors who have questions or concerns about academic accommodations for religious observance or religious beliefs may contact the Office for Inclusion and Equity (<http://equity.utexas.edu/>). The University does not maintain a list of religious holy days.” Please notify the faculty and Texas MS staff at least fourteen days before the absence.

Warning Status and Academic Dismissal

To continue study at the University of Texas at Austin beyond the first semester, students must make satisfactory progress in fulfilling any admission conditions that were imposed by the graduate dean.

A student whose grade point average falls below 3.00 at the end of any semester will be warned by the Office of Graduate Studies that their continuance in the UT Austin Graduate School is in jeopardy and will be placed on scholastic probation during the subsequent semester. During this period, the student may not drop a course or withdraw from the university without the approval of the graduate advisor and the graduate dean. The student must attain a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.00 during the next semester they are enrolled or be subject to dismissal from the university. Academic dismissal is reflected on the student’s academic record. Please review The Graduate School’s official policy (<https://gradschool.utexas.edu/academics/policies/warning-status-academic-dismissal>) for more information about warning status, academic dismissal, and petition for readmission.

Leave of Absence

Students may apply for a leave of absence for no more than two semesters. Granting leaves of absence is left to the discretion of the graduate advisor. If approved, a “Leave of Absence” form must be returned to the Graduate School in advance of the semester for which a leave is granted. A student on an approved leave of absence must apply for readmission in order to return to the university, but readmission during this approved period is automatic and the application fee is waived. A student on leave may not receive any privileges otherwise available to enrolled students. Please contact your Senior Academic Program Coordinator for more information.

International students attending in F-1 or J-1 immigration status must consult with an International Student Advisor at International Students & Scholars Services (ISSS) in Texas Global prior to taking a leave of absence to discuss how leave will affect immigration status.

Leave of Absence, Short-Term Leave Academic Accommodation

The Master of Science Program Office works with each student to balance their academic responsibilities and demands of life that may require a short-term leave of absence. The need for a short-term leave may include but is not limited to, legal obligations, care for dependents or family, parenting obligations, temporary disability, and medical or mental health concerns. This accommodation policy is designed to support students of all gender identities and gender expressions.

Due to the one-year intensive nature of MS Programs it is recommended that short-term leaves be limited to as short as possible however we will work with students based on their specific circumstances in consultation with the student’s care/legal team and based on faculty agreement to provide reasonable academic accommodations as necessary. After a short-term leave period, MS students are expected to resume progress towards degree completion.

It is the responsibility of the MS student to inform their assigned Senior Academic Program Coordinator (SAPC) and Program Director (PD) in writing of any anticipated accommodation needs as early as possible.

It is the responsibility of the MS student to work with each of their faculty members to negotiate reasonable accommodations for the short-term leave of absence period.

Withdrawal

Dropping an entire course load (i.e. going to zero enrolled hours) constitutes withdrawal from the University for that semester. To withdraw from the Graduate School, a student must first contact the Senior Academic Program Coordinator (for applicable procedures and deadlines) and then file a petition with the graduate dean.

International students attending on F-1 or J-1 immigration visas must consult with an International Student Advisor at International Students & Scholars Services (ISSS) in Texas Global prior to withdrawal to discuss how it will affect immigration status.

The Standard of Academic Integrity

A fundamental principle for any educational institution, academic integrity is highly valued and seriously regarded at The University of Texas at Austin. More specifically, you and other students are expected to maintain absolute integrity and a high standard of individual honor in scholastic work undertaken at the University. This is a very basic expectation that is further reinforced by the University's Honor Code. At a minimum, you should complete any assignments, exams, and other scholastic endeavors with the utmost honesty, which requires you to:

- Acknowledge the contributions of other sources to your scholastic efforts;
- Complete your assignments independently unless expressly authorized to seek or obtain assistance in preparing them;
- Follow instructions for assignments and exams, and observe the standards of your academic discipline; and
- Avoid engaging in any form of academic dishonesty on behalf of yourself or another student.

For the official policies on academic integrity and scholastic dishonesty, please refer to Chapter 11 (<http://catalog.utexas.edu/general-information/appendices/appendix-c/student-discipline-and-conduct/>) of the Institutional Rules on Student Services and Activities.

McCombs Statement on Academic Rigor

At McCombs, you can expect to feel intellectually challenged in your classes. This may be experienced as ambition, boldness, curiosity, doubt, excitement, fear, gratitude, or something else entirely. We encourage you to embrace these feelings as indicators of authentic learning and growth. Our mission is to nurture the intellectual exploration and academic tenacity that will help you build the knowledge, skills, and values as foundations to thrive in your forthcoming professional pursuits.

To achieve this mission, we implement a rigorous curriculum designed to guide you in mastering complex concepts across diverse disciplines and contexts. We emphasize high standards and empower you to develop the in-demand skills needed for success in today's workforce as well as the durable skills required to adapt and lead tomorrow's workforce.

Although it is normal to experience difficult coursework in your McCombs classes, we are dedicated to supporting your development and academic success. Our goal is to help each of you live up to your potential and leave here knowing what it means to produce high-quality, credible work. Our priority is that each of you who starts here at McCombs grows to become a curious, life-long learner equipped to change the world.

Standards for Professionalism

Attendance

This program is an academically rigorous 10-month program, and class attendance as well as participation is essential. You are expected to be in class and to arrive ON TIME. On-Time is defined as at least 5 minutes prior to the posted class or event start time and being ready to begin at the time instruction or activity begins. Unless otherwise stipulated by individual faculty members, students of the MS Programs are allowed 2-3 excused absences. Your academic studies always come first.

Non-Disclosure Agreements

As part of coursework, you may be required to sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA) to gain access to client projects or data. The University of Texas at Austin does not negotiate the terms of these NDAs, and you will be signing these agreements as individuals taking part in the project (not as a representative of the University, Texas MS, or the Practicum/Capstone). It is the program's expectation that you will agree to the terms of an NDA and comply with the terms of the NDA as given by the client; however, if you do have major concerns with the terms then please bring those to the attention of your instructor as soon as possible. In addition, if you are uncomfortable signing NDAs as an individual, please notify your instructor before the start of the project. If you are unwilling to sign an NDA this may impact your ability to work directly with client data.

Professional Conduct and Classroom Etiquette

You are expected at all times to represent the program well and to ensure that you are treating program staff, faculty, students, and industry partners with respect. Students in the MS Programs are expected to treat faculty members with respect during their classes and be mindful of their use of phones, laptops, and food.

Repercussions for Professionalism Violations

Repeated failure to do these things can result in privileges being revoked including but not limited to: industry events, career management support, and department sponsored extra-curricular activities. Repercussions for not showing up or showing up late repeatedly are at the discretion of the respective program's Program Director or Director of Student Experience.

Violation 1: Meeting with your Senior Academic Program Coordinator (SAPC).

Violation 2: Loss of access to MS Programs programming and opportunities. Reinstatement of access will be evaluated through a meeting with the Program Director or Director of Student Experience.

Violation 3: Permanent loss of MS Programs programming and opportunities.

Other Information

Escalation - If there are any issues with classes, faculty, course content, etc. please ensure that you are bringing these immediately to the attention of the Texas MS Senior Academic Program Coordinator.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Payment Instructions

Texas Master of Science Program Fees (tuition) are billed every semester. The due dates for 2023-2024 are align with the Academic Calendar (<https://registrar.utexas.edu/calendars>).

- Summer: due July 14, 2023
- Fall: due August 24, 2023
- Spring: due January 19, 2024

*The most up-to-date payment deadlines can be found at the One Stop (<https://onestop.utexas.edu/managing-costs/paying-your-tuition/payment-deadlines>)

The Program Fee will be included on your invoice on the McCombs Payment Portal (<https://utdirect.utexas.edu/business/payment/portal/>). It can be paid with credit card, check, e-check, or wire transfer. If your financial aid payment will arrive after the deadline, communicate with the MSPO Registrar (MSPORegistrar@mcombs.utexas.edu) as soon as possible so that adjustments can be made on a case-by-case basis. Note that MS Programs students are expected to meet tuition deadlines. Tuition must be paid by the deadline (5th class day in fall/spring and 3rd class day in summer by 5:00pm CT) or your registration will be cancelled and classes dropped for the semester. A student can be re-registered for their classes until the 12th class day of fall/spring (4th class day in the summer) only after their tuition bill has been paid in full. Registration after the tuition deadline will result in a $50 late fee. Please note that being dropped from classes may impact your eligibility to complete and earn your MS degree. Additionally, you will not be able to register for future classes or participate in commencement if you have an outstanding bill. In accordance with the General Information Catalog (<https://catalog.utexas.edu/general-information/academic-policies-and-procedures/diplomas/>), a student who owes a debt to the University may be unable to obtain a diploma until the debt is paid.

Students must make payments by the deadline or their course registration will be cancelled and a late fee may be charged. An installment plan is available when you submit your Financial Responsibility Statement and the due dates for 2023-2024 will align with the Academic Calendar.

Texas MS students awarded scholarships by the department can expect their scholarship a week before tuition is due in check form or direct deposit. These students will receive their awards in three increments on the following timeline:

- Summer: July 14, 2023; Fall: August 22, 2023; Spring: January 17, 2024

For questions regarding the expected scholarship amount for each semester, please check with the MSPO Registrar.

If you need Financial Aid please see the Next Steps for Financial Aid Guide (in Canvas) created especially for MS Programs Students. This guide provides helpful steps for both domestic and international students.

Option III Limitations on Financial Aid and Employment

The Texas MS Program is an Option III graduate degree, and therefore is governed by the guidelines for Option III programs (https://gradschool.utexas.edu/sites/default/files/Option_III_Guidelines_Revised2018_040518%5B3%5D_0.pdf) established by the Office of Graduate Studies.

From these guidelines:

Students registered in these degree programs are not eligible for university financial aid, except federal guaranteed loans and some private sector loans. They may not be offered TA, AI, GRA, AA, or A(G) appointments or department fellowships. They will receive no other student "benefits" unless specific arrangements have been made and the appropriate costs (fees) have been paid.

International Student Fees and Insurance

All international students at The University of Texas at Austin are required to pay the $125 ISSS Support Services fee (<https://world.utexas.edu/iss/iss/about/fees>) every semester. This fee will be included on your invoice on the What I Owe page, which is accessible via MyUT.

Additionally, F-1 and J-1 international students are required to be covered by health insurance when enrolled at the University. ISSS provides health insurance

(<https://world.utexas.edu/isss/insurance/students>) to students who do not have coverage, which is provided and billed to international students automatically, unless an insurance waiver (<https://world.utexas.edu/isss/insurance/students/waivers>) form is submitted in a timely manner. Health insurance fees are also included on your invoice on the What I Owe page. The Texas MS program does not cover these charges.
